In-Season Coach/Representative Reports

- Baseball: 1-1 vs. Branham; generally a .500 season; both JV and Varsity won a tournament; good team-building going on! Field is going well, only one rough bump in the infield.
- Golf: 10 matches; 2 remaining against Branham.

Minutes of the April 18, 2016 Sports Boosters Meeting

- Softball: JV 4-5 in league, 6-5 overall; Varsity is 11-1 and in first place. Big game vs. Mt. Pleasant tomorrow.
- Track & Field: practicing a lot! Many top CCS-ranked athletes on the team. Boys FS undefeated.
- Swim/Dive: Season going well, 4 individual swimmers have made CCS cuts, girls have made CCS cuts on all 3 relays; boys hope to make relay cuts soon. JV kids doing great.
- Boys Tennis: young team; 2 wins this season.
- Badminton: bake sale fundraiser at Safeway over the weekend. Season going well; in Mt. Hamilton division now.
- Boys Volleyball: Doing just fine. JV 5-2; Varsity 7-0. Won 2 tournaments and finished 2nd at another.

Unfinished Business:

- Title IX Report: district is continuing educating the administrators about Title IX. No update on the bond yet, which will likely include upgrades to Softball field.

New Business:

- The president reported that Boosters leads districtwide (spirit, sports, papa, HSC) attended a meeting where the district's Chief Business Officer reviewed services available to Booster groups and previewed updated support manual expected to be available by the end of April.
- Boosters discussed the possibility of funding a bigger project with our "Non-Specific Sports" account; we have also been asked to suggest a "project" for the Rotary Club of Los Gatos president to consider funding for this year.
