Reports of Officers and Committee

- Treasurer: report attached.
- Membership: 180 families; $875 short of goal.
- Fundraising: January dining outs--Pieology a possibility. Jersey Mike's changed ownership. Baseball is going to do a "cycle giving" fundraiser at CycleBar. $200 fee, then get donations x $50-75 per kid on 40 bikes could bring in up to $2800.
- Merchandise: New merchandise is here.
- Communications/Newsletter: Newsletter is going out next week. Send photos and news to Aine O'Donovan.
- Snack Shack: No news. Football snack shack was closed; basketball is starting.

Athletic Director's Report:

- Wrestling parent meeting was last night. Starting to charge admission for home wrestling meets. Boosters might send a representative at first meet to accept new memberships.
- Soccer game at Avaya Stadium was on Monday and was a big success. Two boxes may be purchased already so LHS athletes don't have to sell any tickets.
- Basketball going well; Varsity girls start tourney tomorrow.
- Wrestling doing tournaments now, gearing up for the season.

Kim O'Brien moved that Boosters approve $1500 for wrestling mats in addition to the $3500 that was approved at the October 10, 2016 meeting. Lisa Montrezza seconded. Motion adopted.

Lisa Montrezza moved that Boosters approve up to $3300 for parkas for swimming. Michelle Ryder seconded. Motion adopted.
